

When We Get Home

Winifred A. Cheaney, 1904

Robert Dean Burleson

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. When we get home, O bless - ed hope! We speak the words with tremb - ling
2. When we get home, O sweet re - lease, From sin and sor - row, pain and
3. When we get home, O rich re - ward, To meet our loved ones gone be-tongue, While in this world of sin we grope, Where heads are bowed and hearts are wrung.

- tears, To feel the calm of per-fect peace, And know all joy thro' end - less years.
fore, To feel the pre - sence of our Lord, And know the love that shall en - dure.

Refrain

When we get home, when we get home, To
When we get home, when we get home, heav'n - ly lands and man - sions fair, When we have crossed cold Jor - dan's

When we have crossed foam, How sweet will be our wel-come there.

cold Jor-dan's foam,