Robert Lowry, 1860

♩=100

1. When we hear the mu - sic ring - ing In the bright ce - les - tial dome,
2. When the ho - ly an - gels meet us, As we go to join their band;
3. Yes, my earth - worn soul re - joic - es, And my wea - ry heart grows light,
4. Oh! ye wea - ry sad, and tossed ones, Droop not, faint not, by the way;

When sweet an - gel voic - es sing - ing Glad - ly bid us wel - come home,
Shall we know the friends that greet us, In the glor - ious spir - it land?
For the thrill - ing an - gel voic - es, And the an - gel fac - es bright:
Ye shall join the loved and just ones In the land of per - fect day!

To the land of an - cient sto - ry, Where the spir - it knows no care,
Shall we see the same eyes shin - ing, On us, as in days of yore?
That shall wel - come us in Hea - ven, Are the loved of long a - go,
Harp - strings touched by an - gel fin - gers, Mur - mured in my rap - tured ear,

Refrain

In that land of light and glo - ry, Shall we know each o - ther there?
Shall we feel their dear arms twin - ing Fond - ly round us, as be - fore? Shall we know each
And to them 'tis kind - ly giv - en, Thus their mor - tal friends to know. We shall know each Ev - er - more their sweet song lin - gers, "We shall know each o - ther there!"

o - ther? Shall we know each o - ther? Shall we know each o - ther? Shall we know each o - ther there?
o - ther, We shall know each o - ther, We shall know each o - ther, We shall know each o - ther there.
