

They Gave Him Their Treasures

Jessie Hunter Brown Pounds, 1882

James Henry Fillmore, Sr., 1887

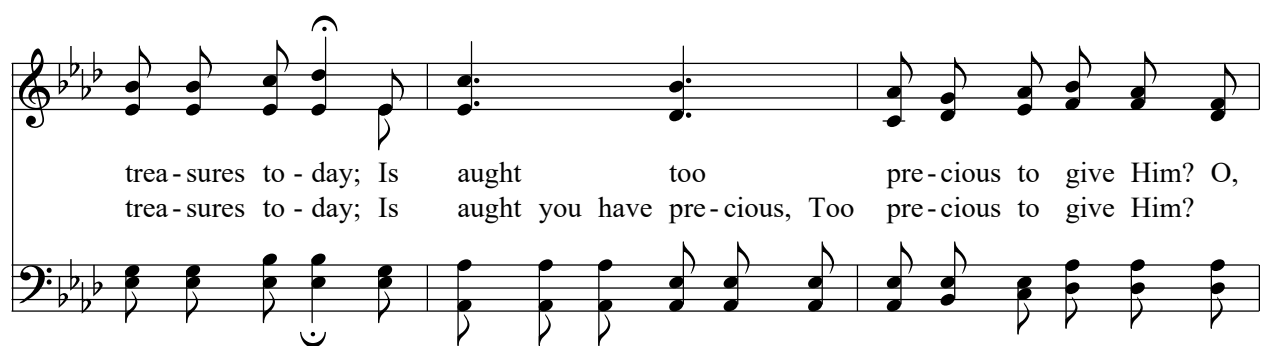

♩ = 75

1. They gave Him their trea - sures, Those wise men of old, Their
2. We can not lay gifts at His feet as did they, But
3. The hun - gry and thirst - ing and sin - ful are here, And—trea - sures of spic - es And per - fumes and gold. No gift they could bring was too gifts we can of - fer To Je - sus to - day; Our help to the poor and des - list to a voice that is ten - der and clear: "The trea - sures you give un - to

rit. Refrain
cost - ly or rare To lay at the feet of the In - fant so fair.
- pised we can bring, And giv - ing to them is a gift to our king. O, these that you see, Lo! I will ac - cept as if giv - en to Me." O, have you a gift for the Sav - ior? He asks for your have you, O have you a gift for the Sav - ior? He asks, O He asks for your trea - sures to - day; Is aught too pre - cious to give Him? O, trea - sures to - day; Is aught you have pre - cious, Too pre - cious to give Him?

say, can you an - swer Him nay?