

Ship Ahoy!

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1904

William A. Post

♩=100

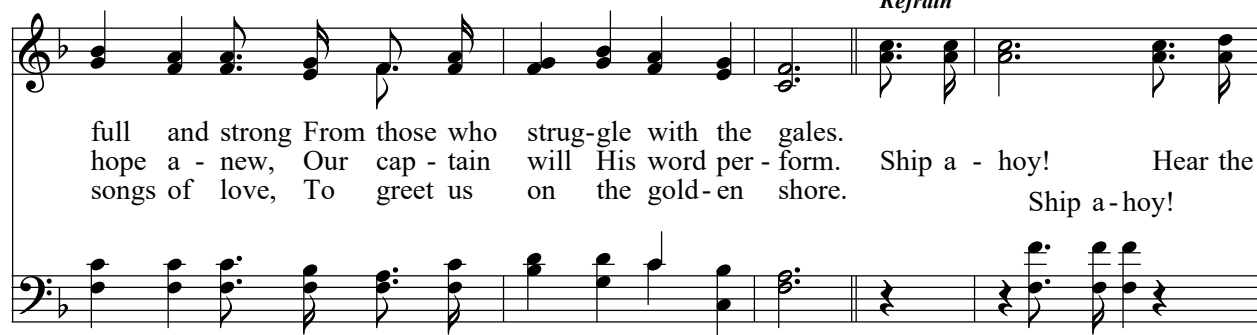

1. We're sail-ing, sail-ing o - ver life's great sea, And oth-er ships are pass - ing
2. Lift up the bea-con that shall guide the lost Un - to the ha - ven bright and
3. We're sail-ing, sail-ing o - ver life's great sea, And not a - lone our way we by; The might - y Sav - ior shall our cap - tain be, His star is fair; O help the wan - d'ring and the tem - pest tossed, That peace and take; For oth - ers, sail - ing, look to you and me! O help them shin - ing in the sky. But while in safe - ty we may shel - ter they may share. O bring the ship - wrecked to the for the Mas - ter's sake! The po - lar star of mer - cy glide a - long, Led by the Light that ne - ver fails, O hear the cry that ris - es Life - boat true, Our re - fuge in the wild - est storm; Sing out with glad - ness and with shines a - bove, Our an - chor holds for - ev - er more; And dear ones wait, with joy - ful full and strong From those who strug- gle with the gales. hope a - new, Our cap - tain will His word per - form. Ship a - hoy! Hear the songs of love, To greet us on the gold - en shore. Ship a - hoy!

Refrain

cry! "God save them," we fer - vent - ly pray! Ship a - hoy! Hear the Hear the cry! Hear the cry! Ship a - hoy!

cry! O haste to the res - cue to - day!
 Hear the cry! haste to - day!