

The Lord Is Risen

Charles Walker Ray, 1883

Charles Edward Prior

♩ = 98

1. The Lord is ris'n! the emp - ty tomb Pro - claims that Je - sus lives a - gain; The
2. The Lord is ris'n! the Lord is King, He comes in tri - umph from the dead; The Lord is ris'n! the chill - ing gloom The Prince of Life could not re - tain. Let all the earth, from Lord is ris'n! re - joice and sing, Cap - ti - vi - ty is cap - tive led, He rose a vic - tor sea to sea, In voice of sweet - est me - lo - dy, Make known the Sav - ior's o'er the grave, And proofs of sov - erign might He gave, And pledge of pow'r the vic - to - ry, His won - drous pow'r pro - claim. Let ev - ery tongue make haste and tell His lost to save From death's cap - tiv - i - ty. By faith my heart to Him would cling, In tri - umphs o - ver death and hell, And grate - ful - ly each an - them swell, And hope my lips ex - ult - ant sig; To Heav'n each trust - ing soul He'll bring. His mag - ni - fy His name.

glo - ry I shall see.