

Easter Lilies

Alice Jean Cleator, 1901, alt.

Adam Geibel

$\text{♩} = 95$ Girls' Voices in Unison

1. Li - lies of Eas - ter, won - drous - ly fair, Breath - ing thy
2. Hark to the whis - pers of the fair bloom, Ris - en from
3. Out from the still - ness of earth's dark mold, In - to new

Sopranos and Altos

sweet - ness, on the still air; What is the mes - sage si - lence of their dark tomb; "We bring an an - swer beau - ty, li - lies un - fold; Ev - er their pre - sence rit.

ye would im - part, In - to the si - lence of sad - dened hearts?
to doubt and strife, We bring a mes - sage of ris - en life."
in the still air, Are signs and sym - bols of life most fair.

Unison Refrain

Beau - ti - ful Eas - ter li - lies, Bring to our hearts the word,

Of One more fair and love - ly, Je - sus the ris - en Lord;

Beau-ti - ful Eas - ter li - lies, Bring to our hearts the word,

Harmony rit.

Of One more fair and love-ly, Je-sus the ris-en Lord.