

The Beauty of Holiness

John Tesseyman, 1881

Samuel Boltz Ellenberger

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. The sum-mer flow'rs are fair and bright, Bath - ing them-selves in sun - ny light, 2. Those pre - cious gems of spark - ling hue, Which deck the brow of mon - archs true, mp Drink - ing the dew, p drink - ing the dew; But love - li - er far are those Flash - ing their light, flash - ing their light; E - clipsed are these all by those flow'rs that grow, In the good man's life as he walks be - low; He gems of grace, Which you e'er in the good man's life may trace, As he basks in the light of heav'n - ly glow, With a heart all pure and whiter than snow, A walks by faith, with his hopes a - blaze, In the cloud-less light of his Fa - ther's face, In p Chris - tian true, a Chris - tian true. sweet de - light, in sweet de - light.

p