

In the Morning

Nellie May McCaughna Bilhorn, 1895

Peter Philip Bilhorn

♩=97

1. I am wait - ing for the morn - ing when the Lord will come; I ex -
2. In the morn - ing when we ga - ther by the crys - tal sea, We shall
3. We will cast our crowns and tro - phies at His pierc - ed feet; We shall

- pect Him ev - ery mo - ment to ap - pear; He will ga - ther home His bride, He a sing the songs of Mos - es and the Lamb; He will wipe our tears a - way, in the bear the palms of vic - tory ev - er - more; And with harps of bright - est gold, ev - er feast will then pro - vide; He is com - ing, and the time is near.

Refrain

bright and hap - py day; He is com - ing! bless His ho - ly name! In the morn - ing, in the will His love be told; We will sing up - on that hap - py shore.

morn - ing, In the morn - ing when He comes, we shall see Him; We will know each oth - er there, In the home so bright and fair; We shall in the glo - ry share, In the morn - ing.