

66

Lord, It Belongs Not to My Care

1. Lord, it be - longs not to my care Wheth - er I
 2. If life is long, I will be glad That I may
 3. Christ leads me through no dark - er rooms Than he went
 4. Come, Lord, when grace has made me glad Your bless - ed
 5. My knowl - edge of that life is small, The eye of die or live; To love and serve You long o - bey; If short, then why should through be - fore; He that in - to God's face to see; For, if Your work on faith is dim; But it's e - nough that is my share, And this Your grace must give.

 I be sad To wel - come end - less day?
 king - dom comes Must en - ter by this door.
 earth is sweet, What will Your glo - ry be?
 Christ knows all, And I shall be with Him.

Words: Richard Baxter (1681)

Music: J. B., for Stephan Bilak © 2004 Cat Claw Music

SCREENPRESSO.COM

Create and share your screen captures with Screenpresso (free)