

Tell the Story of Jesus

Mary R. Colby, 1885

John Robson Sweney

♩ = 105

1. Go tell the sto-ry of Je-sus To some poor sin - sick soul; Think of the time you
2. Go tell the sto-ry of Je-sus To stran-gers you may meet, And dwell up-on His
3. Go tell the sto-ry of Je-sus To those who have not heard, And make it sound as 4. Go tell the sto-ry of Je-sus To peo - ple great and small; Re - mem-ber He, the heard it, And how it made you whole. It drove a - way the dark-ness Of mer - cy In ac - cents rich and sweet; It may be they'll for - get you, In love - ly As the song of some sweet bird; Tell with a glow - ing rap - ture His Sav - ior, Gave up His life for all; Tell it when death's cold bil - lows Are night, where - in you lay; It brought to you the glo - ry And bu - sy toil and care; But they'll not for - get the sto - ry You ten - der words of love; And tell them of the beau - ty Of un - der - neath your feet, 'Twill be the on - ly sto - ry Heard

Refrain

light of per - fect day. whis-pered in their ear. Go tell the sto-ry of Je-sus To some poor sin-sick soul; Think that blest home a - bove. in the gol - den street.

of the time you heard it, And how it made you whole.

