

The Christ Comes to Earth

Lizzie Douglas Foulks DeArmond, 1907

William A. Ppost

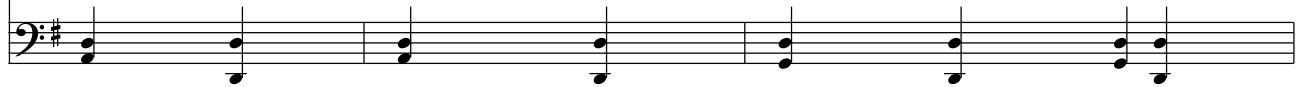

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. The mer - ry bells are gai - ly ring - ing, Hear their joy - ous chime; They
2. Re - peat to all the won - drous tid - ings, Sweet - est ev - er heard; The
3. A - wake! a - wake! ye slum - bering na - tions, Christ is at your door; The wel - come in the Hope of na - tions Born this Christ - mas time; While Shi - loh com - eth to His tem - ple, God re - deems His word; In roy - al Babe of Beth - l'hem's man - ger, Praise Him ev - er - more; All choirs of an - gels sing ex - ult - ing, Let our voic - es rise In hu - man form He now des - cend - eth, Mys - te - ry of love; O glo - ry in the high - est sing - ing, Now His power con - fess; Crown notes of praise to the e - ter - nal Lord of earth and skies.

hail the source of ev - ery bless - ing, Throned in light a - bove. Hail! all hail!
Him! the Prince of Peace tri - um - phant, Lord of Right - eous - ness.

bless - èd birth; The blest de - sire of ev - ery na - tion Comes at last to earth; Hail! all hail!

Christ your king, The ho - ly One, the great Re - deem - er, Life and light doth bring.

