

The Lord Is Risen Indeed

Fronie Bell Turner, 1884

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 98

1. O day of re - sur - rec - tion, Most ho - ly, fair and bright! That from the night of
2. Bring fra - grant buds and blos - soms, And Eas - ter li - lies fair, To fill the ho - ly
3. O bless - ed Lord tri - um - phant, No sor - row crowns Thee now, But ma - jes - ty e - sor - row Sprang forth with liv - ing light. We hail thy ho - ly dawn - ing With tem - ple With in - cense pure and rare! The flowers of re - sur - rec - tion Make

- ter - nal A - dorns Thy ho - ly brow! The work of love is fin - ished, The songs of joy once more And tell the won - drous tid - ings In glad - ness o'er and o'er! sweet and fair the spring, And sac - red in - spi - ra - tion From their Cre - at - or bring! The sac - ri - fice is done! All hail, O ris - en Sav - ior, The vic - to - ry is won!

Refrain

Lord is ris'n in - deed! And glo - ry crowns the King! The Lord is ris'n in - deed, The joy - ful tid - ings ring! Re - joice, re - joice, re - joice, re - joice! O earth, ex - ult - ant sing!