

The Sabbath Bell

Edward Henry Nevin, 1879

Asa Hull

♩=94

1. At morn - ing's dawn I love to hear The Sab - bath bell so
2. It makes the young heart leap and sing With sound of soft and
3. It calls the wea - ry ones to rest, And calms the sad and
4. O, may it ring, till ev - evy - where Its wel - come mu - sic fresh and clear; And when the gold - en sun has set, I plea - sant ring; For when it falls up - on their ear, They trou - bled breast; With stir - ring peals that float a - broad, It fills the air. And earth, now wrapped in gloom - y night, Be

Refrain

love to hear its mu - sic yet.
know the Sab - bath school is near. The Sab - bath bell! the Sab - bath bell! I makes the care - less think of God.
crowned with Sab - bath's ho - ly light.

love it well, I love it well; I love the ding dong bell!