

Seeking for Me

Edward Morris Stephenson (1853–1926)

Edward Morris Stephenson

♩=100

1. Once I was bound, but Je - sus re - leased me; Once I was
2. Weep - ing, I longed for grace and for par - don, Prayed from my
3. Filled with the joy of pre - sent sal - va - tion, Washed in the 4. Oh, for the harp of ser - aph to praise Him, Oh, for the blind, but now I can see. O - ver the moun-tains lone-ly I wan-dered, Je-sus, my load of sin to be free. Then, as I cried in help-less con - tri - tion, Je-sus, my blood once shed on the tree, This be my song thro' ag - es e - ter - nal: Je-sus, my tongue of an - gel to sing. "Glo-ry to Je - sus! I will a - dore Him, I am a-friend, came seek - ing for me.

Refrain

friend, came seek - ing for me. Seek - ing for me, came seek - ing for me, Je - sus, my
- dopt - ed, child of a king."

friend, came seek - ing for me; O - ver the moun - tains lone - ly I wan - dered; Je - sus, my friend, came seek - ing for me.