

The Angels' Song

Brooklyn Anniversary Hymns, 1855

Sunday School Music Book, 1858

♩=90

1. There's a song the an - gels sing, And its notes with rap - ture ring, Round the
2. 'Tis a song for child - ren, too, To the Sav - ior 'tis their due; Let its
3. Soon a - round that throne may we With those hap - py an - gels be, Strik - ing throne whose ra - diance fills the heav'ns a - bove; Shep - herds grate - ful notes as - cend to Him a - gain; Join the harps to strains that nev - er - more shall cease; Ming - ling heard a dist - ant strain, Watch - ing on Ju - de - a's plain, "Glo - ry an - gels in their song, And the heav'n - ly strain pro - long, "Glo - ry love with lof - tiest praise, Still the chor - us there we'll raise, "Glo - ry

Refrain

be to God, to men be peace and love." be to God, good-will and peace to men." Thro' the earth and thro' the sky Let the be to God, to men good will and peace."

an - them ev - er fly, Peace, good will to men, And glo-ry be to God on high.

