

He Goes with Me

John Paul & Kenneth Wells, 1927

Kenneth Herbert Wells

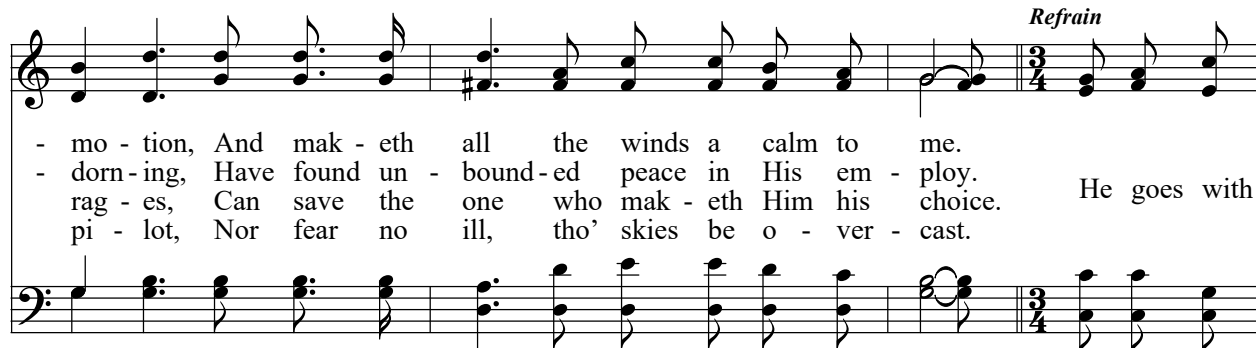

♩=90

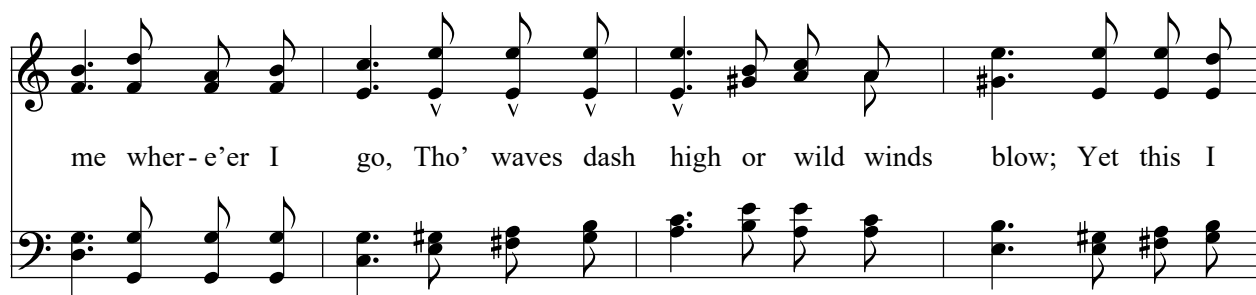

1. He goes with me up - on the storm - y o - cean; He bears me
2. He is the One who taught the sons of morn - ing To sing their
3. Re - deem - er of the world, the Rock of Ag - es, Whose name too
4. Some day the storms of life will all be ov - er, And safe in safe - ly thro' the rest - less sea; He stills my fears, de - spite my life's com - songs of ev - er - last - ing joy; The saints of ev - ery age, His will a - high and sac - red for my voice, No mat - ter how the power of ev - il port my an - chor I will cast; Till then I'll trust in Je - sus as my

Refrain
- mo - tion, And mak - eth all the winds a calm to me.
- dorn - ing, Have found un - bound - ed peace in His em - ploy. He goes with rag - es, Can save the one who mak - eth Him his choice.
pi - lot, Nor fear no ill, tho' skies be o - ver - cast.

me wher - e'er I go, Tho' waves dash high or wild winds blow; Yet this I know, what - e'er be - tide, He still will be my faith - ful guide.