

Let Us Sing Alleluia Today!

Anonymous, 1907

Probably Emily Harriet Elizabeth Ayckbowm

$\text{♩} = 120$

1. Let us sing Al-le-lu-ia to - day! For the tri - umph is won, And the
2. Let us sing Al-le-lu-ia to - day! He who suf - fered and bled Is first-
3. Let us sing Al-le-lu-ia to - day! For be - fore it was light Came a
4. Let us sing Al-le-lu-ia to - day! By His own will and might Christ hath
5. Let us sing Al-le-lu-ia to - day! For thanks - giv - ing and song To the bat - tle is done; Christ now o - pens the heav - en - ly way.

Refrain

- born from the dead; See the place where the Sav - ior once lay.
mes - sen - ger bright, And the stone from the tomb rolled a - way. O put death to flight, And has spoil - ed the grave of its prey.
Vic - tor be - long, Who a con - quer - or comes from the fray.

come to His tem-ple with sing-ing, Hear the glad re-sur-rect-ion bells ring - ing. Al-le-

- lu-ia! Re-joice! Al-le - lu-ia! Re-joice!