

A Place for Thee

J. Wenhaupt Slaughenhaupt, 1878, alt.

S. M. Lutz

♩=100

1. Though oft - en af - flict - ed with sad - ness and pain, While
2. O joy - ful as - sur - ance that we have re - ceived, Of 3. Glad voic - es are sing - ing the songs of His love, He who
4. If true to the end, we shall join the re - frain That o - ver this world we roam; Yet if we are faith - ful, e - glo - ry be - yond the tomb; Which all shall ob - tain who in cleansed all our sins with blood; With glo - ri - fied ones in that ec - hoes thro' Heav'n's bright dome; For - ev - er re - leased from all

Refrain

- ter - nal life will gain, In Heav'n our hap - py home.
Je - sus have be - lieved, In Heav'n their hap - py home. Praise the Lord, O my hap - py home a - bove, We'll share that blest a - bode. Praise the Lord, sor - row, toil and pain, In Heav'n our hap - py home.

soul, For the hope that we all shall soon be free. For the O my soul, soon be free;

Sav - ior long a - go Said "To glo - ry I will go, To pre - pare a home for thee."