

Decide Tonight

Mary Maria Kiernan Kennedy, 1898

William Speer Nickle

♩ = 90

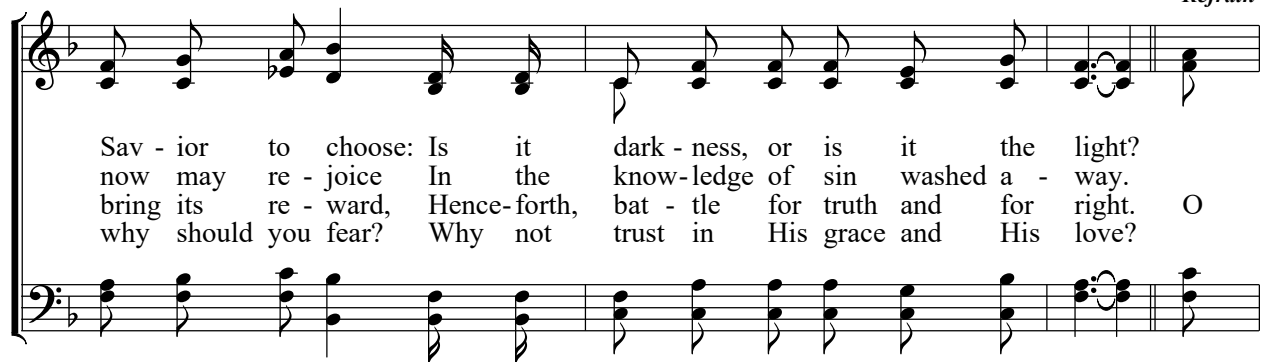

1. Why wa - ver be - tween two o - pin - ions? O
2. De - cide who you'll serve now, dear bro - ther; There's
3. Come un - der the heav - en - ly ban - ner; O
4. Why still un - de - cid - ed, dear bro - ther? There's why should you not choose to - night? You should not re - fuse the dan - ger in any de - lay; If Christ is your choice, you come now, dear brother, to - night: De - cide for the Lord, 'twill mer - cy from Jesus a - bove; Thy re - fuge is near, so

Refrain

Sav - ior to choose: Is it dark - ness, or is it the light?
now may re - joice In the know - ledge of sin washed a - way.
bring its re - ward, Hence - forth, bat - tle for truth and for right. O why should you fear? Why not trust in His grace and His love?

why not de - cide, dear friend, to - night? O why not de - cide to - night? Time speed-eth a - way, O do not de - lay, But de - cide for thy Sav - ior to - night.