

I'll Be Ready

Charles Edward Pollock, 1906, alt.

Charles Edward Pollock

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. When Je - sus shall come a - gain by and by, I'll be rea-dy to go; He's
2. No mat-ter what day or what hour it shall be, I'll be rea-dy to go; The
3. Should He come in morn-ing, or at the noon day, I'll be rea-dy to go; Or
4. But if the Lord tar - ry till midnight so late, I'll be rea-dy to go; With
5. I long for His com - ing, I sigh for sweet rest; I'll be rea-dy to go; He'll pro - mised to ga - ther His saints in the sky— I'll be rea-dy to go.

signs of His com - ing I'm watch - ing to see— I'll be rea-dy to go.
late in the even - ing as light fades a - way— I'll be rea-dy to go.
lamp trimmed and burn - ing I'll pa - tient - ly wait— I'll be rea-dy to go.
take me to Heav - en, the home of the blest— I'll be rea-dy to go.

Refrain

I'll be rea-dy, I'll be rea-dy, I'll be rea-dy to go; I'll be rea-dy,

I'll be rea-dy, I'll be rea-dy to go.