The Pathway of the Just

Barney E. Warren, pub. 1911

PROVERBS 4:18
B. E. W.

1. There are beams of brilliant sunlight along the holy way, Where the weary pilgrims

2. They are walking in the footsteps of Jesus all the time, For the needed strength and

3. They are joyful in temp-ta-tion because the Lord is near, Let fences come, for

4. By the pas-tures ever green, by refresh-ing wa-ters free, Christ will lead them if in travel in the dust; They are hap-py as they’re near-ing that land of bliss-ful day, grace in Him they trust; They are on the way to glo-ry where joys are more sub-lime,

Je-sus said they must; So with sword and shield they con-quer with-out a doubt or fear,

Him they ful-ly trust; To the Fa-ther He will say, ‘These are mine Thou gav-est me,

They are walk-ing in the path-way of the just.
They are walk-ing in the path-way of the just. They are walk-ing,

They are walk-ing in the path-way of the just. They are walk-ing in the path-way, they are walk-ing. They are walk-ing in the path-way of the just;

“I have kept them in the path-way of the just.”

they are walk-ing in the path-way,

They are walk-ing, they are walk-ing. They are walk-ing in the path-way of the just.

They are walk-ing in the path-way, they are walk-ing in the path-way,