Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed

1. Alas! and did my Savior bleed, and was it for sins that I have done he might hide and might blush my ing face while

2. Well might the sun in darkness hide and thus might I hide my ing face while

3. Did my Sovereign die? Would he devote that groaned up on the tree? Amazing pity, shut its glories in might y

4. Did my Sovereign die? Would he devote that groaned up on the tree? Amazing pity, shut its glories in might y

Sacred head for sinners such as I? grace unknown, and love beyond degree! Maker, died for his own creatures' sin. thankfulness, and melt mine eyes to tears.

Text: Isaac Watts, 1707, alt.
Tune: Hugh Wilson, c. 1800; adapt. Robert Smith, 1825
